DESCRIPTION

House in Petra, corner divided into ground floor and first floor in a total of 90m² covered.

From the street there are two doors (one that leads to the bottom and the other that leads to the first floor). If we enter through the door on the left it takes us to a small room with a fireplace and a small pantry and in it there is a door that leads to the outside terrace, there is a small toilet and a porch, there is also the exterior staircase that takes us upstairs.

There is a terrace and an outside corridor that goes to the laundry room, to a small room and the kitchen on the floor.

If we enter through the front door we see the living room with fireplace and then if we look in front we see that there is a corridor, if we go down this hall we look to the left and we see a bedroom, then we look in front and see the other bedroom and next to the right we see the bathroom with a bathtub and a shower. In front of the bathroom is the fully furnished kitchen with enough space to eat in it with a door that takes us outside.

Very flirtatious apartment and does not lack details.

There is air conditioning in the living room and another one next to the kitchen. A few touch-ups are needed; however, it has many possibilities.

Located in a quiet area whose street is wide enough so there are no problems to park.
